WHAT IS THE THAI SPA ASSOCIATION?

The Thai Spa Association is a non-profit organisation, established to promote and develop the spa industry in Thailand. Members enjoy a wide range of benefits, including educational newsletters and seminars, regular member meetings and events, and the opportunity to network with spa professionals from Thailand and other international spa organisations.

OUR OBJECTIVES

1. To promote and preserve the general welfare of the spa industry and the safety of its consumers, by establishing standards for staffing, training, spa set-up, spa operation, and product and equipment supply.
2. To be the voice of the spa industry in Thailand, educating the public about the value and benefits of the spa experience.
3. To support and assist members to overcome obstacles as well as mediate with outsiders for mutual benefit in the engagement of business in the categories contained in the objectives; monitoring and following up on the movements in both the domestic and foreign markets of the products and service in which its members are engaged, for the benefit of trade, finance, economy or security of the country; and to encourage participation of spas of every size and kind, and entities actively engaged in supplying goods or services to the spa industry.
4. To conduct research concerning the engagement of businesses of the categories contained in the objectives, exchanging and disseminating technical knowledge as well as trading information concerning such enterprises.
5. To promote the quality of the products and services of those engaged in the businesses who are its members to meet standards as well as conduct research and improve production and trading methods for better results.
6. To cooperate with the government in the promotion of trade, industry, finance or any other business in the economic field within its objectives.
7. To agree or provide guidelines for members to follow so as to enable the engagement of business in the categories contained in its objectives to operate in an orderly manner.
8. To mediate disputes between members or between members and outsiders in the engagement of business.
